1. After some arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner instead of pressing the present petition, will approach the respondents by way of a representation for restoring his seniority. He, therefore, does not press the present petition. The same is accordingly dismissed as not pressed with liberty to the petitioner to move a representation before the respondents.

2. It is, however, made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the petitioner's claim and therefore, if the petitioner makes a representation to the respondents, the same shall be considered on its own merits by the respondents.
