After some arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present petition with liberty to raise all contentions before the Ld. Trial Court. However, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an old man with a pacemaker.

In view of the submissions made, the petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to raise all contentions before the Ld. Trial Court. The petitioner is also exempted to appear through his counsel Dr. Manish

Aggarwal or his associates except on the dates when the appearance of the accused shall be required for the purpose of the charge or recording of the statement. The petitioner shall not dispute the identity before the Ld. Trial Court. However, it is made clear that this court has not gone into the merits of the case and no expression made herein shall tantamount to be an expression of the merit of the case.
