1. The present proceedings are instituted on behalf of the petitioner seeking quashing of FIR No. 173/2023 registered under Section 307 IPC at Police Station Tilak Nagar, Delhi on the ground that the parties have amicably settled their disputes.
2. As per the allegations levelled in the FIR the respondent No. 2 was stabbed by the petitioner by a sharp object due to heated arguments between them.
3. Mr. Laksh Khanna learned APP for the State, on instructions, submits that the petitioner is the only accused and respondent No.2 is the complainant/victim in the present case.
4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner and respondent No. 2 are known to each other and present FIR was registered on account of some misunderstanding and with the intervention of family members and friends, parties have amicably settled their disputes vide Settlement Agreement dated 31.07.2023, a copy whereof has been placed on record. In terms of the said settlement, complainant is now left with no claim or grievance against the petitioners.

5. The petitioner and respondent no.2, who are present in Court, have been identified by their counsel as well as the I.O./ SI Naresh Kumar PS Tilak Nagar, Delhi.

6. The petitioner has shown remorse for his conduct and undertakes not to repeat the same in future. Respondent No. 2 also states that he has entered into the aforementioned compromise out of his own free will, volition and without any coercion. He further states that he has no objection if the present FIR and consequent proceedings are quashed.

7. The parties shall remain bound by the statements made in Court today.

8. In view of the above facts and considering that no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, it is directed that the aforesaid FIR and the consequent proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed.

9. The petition is disposed of in above terms.
