CORAM:

HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE MINI PUSHKARNA

ORDER

29.08.2024

1. The present suit has been filed seeking permanent injunction and damages from the defendant in relation to a television commercial which was used by both the parties in the year 2012, wherein, the plaintiff claims that the commercial used by the defendant was disparaging of the plaintiff's products as well as substantial copy of the same.
2. The parties were directed to take instructions when the matter was listed on the last date of hearing.
3. Today, learned counsel appearing for the plaintiff submits that he has taken instructions that since the television commercial has not been run by the defendant since the year 2012, the present suit can be disposed of.
4. Accordingly, recording the fact that the television commercial in question, has not been used by the defendant since the year 2012, the present suit is disposed of.

5. However, the rights and contentions of the parties are left open.
6. Needless to state that if any fresh cause of action arises in future, the parties are at liberty to take necessary action, in accordance with law.
7. Accordingly, the suit stands disposed of in terms, thereof.
