1. It is stated by learned Counsel for GNCTD that the work stands completed, and therefore, the writ petition has been rendered infructuous.
2. The writ petition is being closed on the statement given by the learned Counsel for GNCTD leaving the question of law open to be agitated at a later point of time, if need so arises in future.
3. It is stated that Status Report has been filed by GNCTD. However, the same is under objections. A copy of the Status Report has been handed over in Court today.

4. In view of above, since the work stands completed, the issue has become academic in nature.

5. The petition is disposed of as infructuous leaving the questions raised in the writ petition open to be agitated in an appropriate case, if need so arises in future. Pending application(s), if any, stand disposed of.
