CM APPL. 41351/2019 (stay)

1. On last three dates also none appeared for petitioner and same is the status today as well. It is informed by counsel for respondents that parties have compromised the disputes whereby the subject premises have been sold away by the respondents to the petitioner. Apparently that is the reason that today on four consecutive dates; none appears on behalf of petitioner.
2. Therefore, the petition is dismissed in default.
3. Pending application shall stand disposed of.
