%

(The proceeding has been conducted through Hybrid Mode)

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though, in the interregnum, some of the reliefs so sought have already been received by petitioner, however in case any such relief remains pending, the petitioner be permitted to make a representation to the respondents.
2. The said permission is granted. The respondent is directed to consider and decide the representation, if any, of the petitioner in a time bound manner.
3. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of as satisfied.
