%

(The proceeding has been conducted through Hybrid Mode)

1. Mr. Girdhar Govind, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, on specific instructions from the petitioner, submits that there is positive development in the workplace and as such there are strong chances of amicable settlement in this matter and as such, the petitioner seeks to withdraw the present petition on that ground.
2. There is no objection on behalf of the respondents.
3. In view of such submission, the petition along with pending application is dismissed as withdrawn.
