05.12.2024

1. Since the admissions have already been granted, therefore, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners seeks liberty to withdraw the instant writ petition.
2. On the other hand, learned counsel appearing for the respondent-school submits that one of the petitioners has been granted admission in the respondent-school under peculiar circumstances and the remaining petitioners have been granted admission in other schools.
3. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent-school submits that so far as the admission granted by the respondent-school is concerned; let the same be treated to have been granted without prejudice to rights and contentions.

4. The submissions so made seem to be reasonable and are accordingly, accepted.
5. In light of the aforesaid, the petition stands disposed of.
6. All rights and contentions raised by the parties are left open.
