3. Learned APP for the State submits that in the present case the petitioners are the only accused persons and respondent No.2 is the only complainant/victim. He further submits that the prosecution evidence is yet to begin.
4. Learned counsels for the parties submit that the parties, with intervention/involvement of the respectable persons of community, relatives and commons friends, have entered into an out-of-court settlement and in terms of the settlement, respondent No.2 is now left with no claim whatsoever against the present petitioners.

5. The petitioners, who are present in the Court, have been identified by their respective counsels and the Investigating Officer. Respondent No.2, who is also present in Court, is identified by the Investigating Officer.

6. The petitioners have shown remorse for their conducts and they undertake not to repeat the same in future. Respondent No.2 states that she has entered into the aforesaid settlement out of her own free will, volition and without any coercion. She further states that she has no objection if the present FIR and consequent proceedings are quashed.
