1. The present petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 ('Cr.P.C.') has been instituted on behalf of the petitioner seeking quashing of FIR bearing No. 690/2023, registered at Police Station Palam Village, Delhi for offence punishable under Section 307 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 ('IPC').
2. Issue notice. Mr. Sanjay Lao, learned Standing Counsel accepts notice on behalf of the State.
3. Petitioner is present before this Court and has been identified by his counsel Mr. Meer Hasan and Investigating Officer (IO) from Police Station Palam Village, Delhi.
4. Brief facts of the case as per the petition are, that on 02.11.2023, the petitioner and respondents were having dinner at their mother's house and petitioner and respondents were in alcohol and some little quarrel had taken place between the brothers (petitioner and respondents) and in the heat of the moment the all incident had take place. On the complaint of respondent no. 2& 3, an FIR was registered against the petitioner. It is also stated by respondent no.2 and 3 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties vide Settlement Deed dated 24.11.2023.

5. On a query made by this Court, respondent no.2 and 3 who have been identified by the IO, has categorically stated that they have entered into compromise out of their own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent no.2 and 3 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties vide Settlement Deed dated 24.11.2023 entered into between them.

6. In view of the above fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, and without any coercion, no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

7. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 690/2023, registered at Police Station Palam Village, Delhi for offence punishable under Section 307 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

8. The petition stands disposed of.

9. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
