ORDER

27.08.2024

1. This hearing is being conducted through hybrid mode.

CM APPL. 48757/2024 (Ex.)

2. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.

3. The application stands disposed of.

4. The petitioner is seeking initiation of contempt proceedings against the respondents for alleged wilful and deliberate disobedience of the directions contained in the order dated 14.05.2024, passed by this Court in Writ Petition (Crl.) No. 1513/2024.

5. No one is present for the respondents despite advance notice.

6. Having heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner, I find that there is no foundation for filing the present Contempt Petition. Shorn of unnecessary details, it appears that a complaint was lodged by the petitioner on 06.02.2024 with the concerned Police Station alleging that she is the owner of the property at Anand Niketan, which had allegedly been trespassed by one Mr. Mahesh Vijay Gopal, based on forged documents. The only assurance that was given on behalf of the respondent/Delhi Police was that they would inquire into the complaint.

7. Evidently, this Court also gave liberty to the petitioner to initiate appropriate proceedings with regard to the recovery of possession. Instead of resorting to any other efficacious remedy, the petitioner approaches this Court. No directions can be passed to the Police to get the property recovered for the petitioner.

8. The present Contempt Petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to initiate and seek appropriate reliefs with regard to the property in question from the competent Civil Court besides seeking appropriate remedy from the Court exercising criminal jurisdiction in accordance with law.
