CRL.M.A. 25509/2024 & 25510/2024(Exemptions)

1. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. Applications are stand disposed of.

W.P.(CRL)-2603/2024 & W.P.(CRL)-2164/2024

1. These petitions have been filed seeking quashing of FIR no. 0394/2019 registered at PS Burari, Delhi under Sections 420 IPC and FIR no. 163/2017 registered at PS Burari under Sections 420/468/471/34 IPC, on the basis of settlement arrived at between the parties dated 14th December, 2021 which is on record of this Court.
2. The dispute is related to a property issue. As per the settlement, certain amounts had to be paid, which are being paid to the respondents/complainants, who are present in Court and duly acknowledge the same.
3. There was an issue of delayed payment of particular instalment for which the complainants demanded interest amount and, accordingly, have received Rs. 10,000/- through wire transfer today, which they also acknowledge.
4. Complainants do not have any objection to the quashing of the FIR.
5. The petitioners are also present through VC and are duly identified by the IO and counsel.
6. As per the previous order Mr. Ashok Kumar, who had also alleged that he had been defrauded, is also present in Court, and he has also no objection to the FIR being quashed on the basis of settlement. Mr. Suresh Vashisht and Ms. Sharda Sehgal, complainants are present in Court and duly identified by IO and counsel.
7. Considering the above settlement between the parties and the chances of conviction of the petitioners being remote and bleak, there is no use continuing with proceedings of the present FIR as it would be a misuse of the process of the Court and an unnecessary burden on the State exchequer. Accordingly, the petition is allowed. Consequently, FIR no. 0394/2019 registered at PS Burari, Delhi under Sections 420 IPC and FIR no. 163/2017 registered at PS Burari under Sections 420/468/471/34 IPC and proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

8. Parties shall abide by the terms of settlement.
9. Accordingly, the petition is disposed of. Pending applications (if any) are disposed of as infructuous.
10. Order be uploaded on the website of this Court.
