accordance with law, before the learned Executing Court within one week from today and that in order to show her bonafide, she is also ready to deposit a sum of Rs.7 lacs within five weeks from today, before the learned Executing Court.

6. It is, therefore, prayed that no coercive process may be directed to be taken in the Execution Petition for a period of five weeks from today.

7. Learned counsel for the respondent/plaintiff is present and has no objection to the aforesaid proposal.

8. In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of with the direction that the petitioner (Judgment Debtor) is granted five weeks for depositing a sum of Rs. 7 lacs before the learned Executing Court and, therefore, for a period of five weeks, to be reckoned from today, no coercive process be taken in the abovesaid Execution Petition.

9. However, the petitioner would be at liberty to file, as undertaken above, objection petition within one week from today and learned Executing Court shall consider and dispose of the same in accordance with law after hearing both the parties.

10. In the meanwhile, as mutually agreed by both the sides, they would also approach Mediation Centre, Saket District Courts, in order to get the disputes resolved, amicably.
