As per office report, notice could not be issued as PF has not been filed.

It is also reported that the decretal amount in terms of order dated 21st December, 2023, has also not been deposited.

Today, none appeared on behalf of the appellants either to take passover or an adjournment when the matter was called.

Taking the entire facts and circumstances into account, the petition along with accompanying application is thus dismissed for non-prosecution.
