%

1. Learned Counsel for the Petitioner states that the period for which the channel has been permitted to operate is over, and therefore, the petition as framed is rendered infructuous.
2. However, learned Counsel for the Petitioner states that certain payments have been made to Prasara Bharti on behalf of Respondent No.3 for which receipts have not been issued by Prasara Bharti.
3. It is always open for the Petitioner to approach Prasara Bharti for the receipts of the payment which they have made on behalf of Respondent No.3.

4. On such a representation being given, the Prasar Bharti is directed to consider the same and give receipts in accordance with law.
5. The petition is disposed of as infructuous along with pending application(s), if any.
6. It is made clear that this Court has not made any observation on the merits of the case.
