CRL.M.A. 27068/2024 (Exemption)

1. Exemption allowed, subject to all jus exceptions.
2. The application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.C. 7096/2024

3. The Petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (hereinafter referred to as 'Cr.P.C., 1973') has been filed on behalf of the petitioner, seeking quashing of the FIR No. 529/2021 for the offences under Section 498A/406/509/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereinafter referred to as 'IPC, 1860') registered at Police Station Kotla Mubarak Pur, New Delhi.
4. Issue notice.
5. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on advance notice, accepts notice on behalf of the State.

6. Brief facts of the case are that the marriage was solemnized between petitioner No. 1/husband and respondent No. 2/wife on 01.02.2005 according to the Hindu rites and ceremonies and a male child was born out of the said wedlock.

7. It is stated that the petitioner No. 1 and the respondent No. 2 have amicably settled all the disputes and differences between them and agreed to reside happily together and since then they have been living together.

8. The parties are present before this Court in-person today, and have been identified by their counsel and Investigating Officer concerned.

9. The present petition has been signed by the petitioner and is supported by his affidavit. The parties are living together happily and without any pressure and coercion.

10. Today, the respondent No. 2/wife, who is present in the Court, states that she has no objection if the FIR is quashed.

11. In view of the above facts that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will and without any coercion and also the fact that the present matter is a family matter, no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. Hence, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

12. Moreover, there is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

13. Accordingly, FIR No. 529/2021 for the offences under Section 498A/406/509/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereinafter referred to as 'IPC, 1860') registered at Police Station Kotla Mubarak Pur, New Delhi.

and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

14. The Petition stands disposed of.
