1. The present petition has been filed under Section 482 CrPC seeking quashing of FIR No.1149/2018 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at Police Station Mangolpuri and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom on the ground that the parties have arrived at a settlement.
2. Notice was issued in the present petition on 13.02.2024.
3. The learned APP submits that since the FIR is an outcome of a matrimonial dispute and the parties have arrived at a settlement, the State has no objection in case the FIR in question is quashed.
4. The petitioner no.1 (former husband), as well as, the respondent no. 2 (former wife) are present in the Court and they have been identified by their respective counsel and by the Investigating Officer SI Sangeeta, PS.

Mangolpuri.

5. The brief facts of the case are that the marriage between the petitioner no.1 and respondent no. 2 was solemnized on 16.04.2016 according to Hindu Rites and Customs. No child was born out of the said wedlock.

6. On account of temperamental issues certain disputes arose between the parties and they started living separately w.e.f. 05.03.2017. The dispute between the parties also led to the registration of present FIR.

7. During the pendency of the proceedings, the parties were referred to Counselling Cell attached to the Family Courts, North/West, Rohini, Delhi where they arrived at a settlement, terms whereof were reduced in writing in the form of Settlement dated 14.02.2022, which is at page no. 48 of the paper book.

8. In terms of the said settlement, the parties decided to dissolve their marriage by filing a petition for divorce by way of mutual consent. Accordingly, the petitioner no.1 and respondent no.2 have obtained a decree of divorce dated 29.11.2022, which is annexed to the present petition.

9. It is also a term of the settlement between the parties that the petitioner no.1 shall pay a total sum of Rs.1 lac to the respondent no.2 towards full and final settlement of all her claims on account of streedhan, permanent alimony, dowry articles, maintenance (past, present and future) etc. Out of the said amount, a sum of Rs. 66,000/- has already been paid by the petitioner no.1 to the respondent no.2 in the manner as mentioned in the settlement. The remaining amount of Rs.34,000/- has been paid to the respondent no.2 today in the court by the petitioner no.1.

10. The receipt of entire amount of Rs.1 lac is acknowledged by the respondent no.2, who is present in court.

11. The respondent no.2, on a query put by the Court, states that she has no objection in case the FIR is quashed.
12. In view of the fact that the parties have arrived at a settlement, no useful purpose will be served in continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them.
13. It is, thus, in the interest of justice that the present FIR and all the other proceedings emanating therefrom be quashed.
14. Consequently, the petition is allowed and the FIR No.1149/2018 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at Police Station Mangolpuri alongwith all other proceedings emanating therefrom, is quashed.
15. The petition stands disposed of in the above terms.
16. Order be uploaded on the website of this court.
