1. Vide the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has approached this Court seeking a direction to the respondents to expeditiously decide his pending appeal dated 24.04.2024, whereby he has assailed the order dated 30.01.2024 passed by the respondent no.2.
2. Learned counsel for the respondents, who appears on advance notice, submits on instructions that the petitioner's appeal will be decided within a period of four weeks.
3. In the light of the aforesaid stand taken by the respondents, nothing further survives for adjudication in the present petition, which is, accordingly, disposed of by taking the aforesaid statement made on behalf of the respondents on record. We however make it clear that since this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the petitioner's claim, in case, he is aggrieved by the order passed in the appeal, it will be open for him to seek legal recourse as permissible in law.
