%

1. Learned counsel for petitioner has, at the very outset, submitted that during the pendency of the present writ petition, most of the grievances of the petitioner have been taken care of. Learned counsel for petitioner submits that there might be some insignificant left over outstanding amount and for that, he would make appropriate request/representation. He also submits that while reserving his such rights, petitioner, at the moment, does not wish to continue with her present writ petition.
2. The present writ petition is accordingly disposed of. Liberty, as prayed, is granted.
