1. The Petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 has been filed on behalf of the petitioners, seeking quashing of the FIR No. 353/2018 for the offences under Sections 419/420/120B registered at Police Station Keshav Puram, Delhi.
2. Issue notice.
3. Learned APP appearing on advance notice, accepts notice on behalf of the State.
4. It is stated that the petitioner and the respondent No. 2 have amicably settled all the disputes and differences between them vide Oral Settlement and it was inter alia settled that the petitioner No. 1 shall give Rs.3,00,000/- complainant in full and final settlement of all his claims. It is submitted that the petitioner has already paid Rs.2,25,000/- and has handed over a Demand Draft bearing No. 898703 of Rs. 75,000/- to the complainant on 11.09.2024.

5. The Petition is supported by the Affidavits of the Parties and they endorse the Settlement and state that they have arrived at the Settlement without any fear and coercion and shall state bound by it and shall remain bound by the Affidavits.

6. The petitioners are present before this Court and the complainant is on on VC today, and have been identified by their counsel and Investigating Officer concerned.

7. Today, the respondent No. 2, who is present in the Court through VC, states that he has no objection if the FIR is quashed.

8. In view of the above facts that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will and without any coercion, no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. Hence, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

9. Moreover, there is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

10. Accordingly, FIR No. 353/2018 for the offences under Sections 419/420/120B registered at Police Station Keshav Puram, Delhi and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

11. The Petition stands disposed of.
