ORDER

By way of the present petition filed under section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973 ('Cr.P.C.'), the petitioner seeks regular bail in case FIR No.499/2018 dated 28.07.2018 registered under sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 ('IPC') and sections 25/27 of the Arms Act, 1959 at P.S.: Ranhola, Delhi.

2. As recorded in order dated 30.09.2024, since the petition was filed after 01.07.2024 and there was no earlier petition for the same relief pending before the court, the petition was treated as one under section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 ('BNSS'), as per section 531 BNSS viz. the repeal and savings clause in the BNSS.
3. Notice on this petition was issued on 30.09.2024.
4. Status Report dated 28.10.2024 has been filed in the matter.

5. Nominal Roll dated 25.10.2024 has also been received from the Jail Superintendent.
6. Mr. Hirein Sharma, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner points-out that vide order dated 04.09.2024 made in BAIL APPLN. No. 690/2023, this Bench has granted to co-accused Sahil @ Pradeep Tomar regular bail in the same FIR, essentially on 02 considerations : first, that the petitioner in that case has been implicated based on the statement of the father of another co-accused Sunil Punia, who has said in his statement recorded under section 161 Cr.P.C. that 02 of the 04 boys spotted by him in a certain CCTV footage appear to resemble his son Sunil Punia and Sahil @ Pradeep Tomar; and second, that the complainant, who claims to be the eye-witness to the incident, has turned hostile in his deposition before the learned trial court and has failed to identify the petitioner in that case.
7. Mr. Sharma submits, that to be sure, even co-accused Sunil Punia's father has only said that 02 of the 04 boys spotted in the CCTV footage, seemed to resemble his son Sunil Punia and Sahil @ Pradeep Tomar; but the father has not identified any person muchless has he identified the present petitioner. Counsel also points-out that Sunil Punia's father has not been arrayed by the prosecution as a witness in the chargesheet.
8. That apart, Mr. Sharma argues, that the brother of the deceased viz. Devender Goyal (PW-3) as well as the wife of the deceased Pinky Goel (PW-4) have both turned hostile in their deposition before the learned trial court and have failed to identify the present petitioner.

9. Mr. Sharma submits, that it is accordingly clear that the petitioner has not been identified as being present at the spot by any of the prosecution witnesses; and yet, the petitioner has been in judicial custody since the date of his arrest i.e. 26.11.2018, without ever having availed any interim bail or other similar relief.
10. It is prayed that especially since the petitioner has been in custody for about the last 06 years as an undertrial, he deserves to be enlarged on regular bail.
11. On the other hand, opposing the grant of bail, Mr. Tarang Srivastva, learned APP appearing for the State argues, that though PW-3 and PW-4, the brother and wife of the deceased respectively, have both turned hostile, however, it be also noted that the petitioner has 07 other criminal implications - including 03 convictions (in 02 of which he has undergone his sentence), 02 acquittals and 02 other matters in which he is on bail, in Haryana, Delhi and the Union Territory of Chandigarh.
12. Learned counsel for the petitioner counters this submission by pointing-out, that regardless of the other criminal implications cited by the State, it is clear that as of now, the petitioner has either served-out his sentence in those cases or he has been acquitted or is presently on bail in those matters; but on the other hand in the present case, all public witnesses have turned hostile and accordingly there is no possibility of the petitioner being convicted since no one has identified him.

13. The complainant/brother of the deceased is also present in court. He submits that he had engaged a private counsel, who had said that he would joined today's proceedings via video-conferencing; however no one is present on his behalf.
14. The court has asked the complainant to make his submissions. He states that he "does not recognise" the petitioner; and confirms that he has made the same statement during his deposition before the learned trial court.
15. A perusal of the nominal roll shows that the petitioner has 07 other implications as referred-to above; but his jail conduct has been 'satisfactory'.
16. In the above view of the matter, and especially considering the fact that the petitioner has already undergone about 06 years of judicial custody as an undertrial in a case where all public witnesses are stated to have been turned hostile, this court is persuaded to grant to the petitioner – Parmod @ Pummy s/o Om Parkash – regular bail pending trial, subject to the following conditions :
 - 16.1. The petitioner shall furnish a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rs. Twenty-five Thousand Only) with 02 local sureties in the like amount from family members, to the satisfaction of the learned trial court;
 - 16.2. The petitioner shall furnish to the Investigating Officer a cellphone number on which the petitioner may be contacted at any time and shall ensure that the number is kept active and switched-on at all times;

- 16.3. If the petitioner has a passport, he shall surrender the same to the learned trial court and shall not travel out of the country without prior permission of the learned trial court;
- 16.4. The petitioner shall not contact, nor visit, nor offer any inducement, threat or promise to any of the prosecution witnesses or other persons acquainted with the facts of case. The petitioner shall not tamper with evidence nor otherwise indulge in any act or omission that is unlawful or that would prejudice the proceedings in the pending trial; and
- 16.5. In case of any change in his residential address/contact details, the petitioner shall promptly inform the Investigating Officer in writing.
17. Since the petitioner is facing trial and is therefore appearing before the learned trial court from time-to-time, it is not considered necessary to impose a reporting requirement as a condition of bail.
18. Subject to the above, the petitioner is directed to be released from judicial custody forthwith, unless required in any other case.
19. The petition stands disposed-of in the above terms.
20. Other pending applications, if any, are also disposed-of.
21. Nothing in this order shall be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the pending matter.
22. A copy of this order be sent to the concerned Jail Superintendent forthwith.
