1. Petitioner has filed an appeal which is pending adjudication before learned Presiding Officer, Appellate Tribunal MCD, Delhi (ATMCD).
2. Grievance raised in the present petition is very limited.
3. It seems that the appellant apprehends that the learned Tribunal would dispose of the appeal without making reference to the applications which he had filed before the learned ATMCD in the interregnum.
4. Learned counsel for respondents appears on advance notice and accepts notice.
5. The next date before the learned Tribunal is stated to be 17.01.2025.
6. Needless to say, if any application has already been filed including any application seeking to place on record additional evidence, the learned ATMCD would consider any such application before disposing of the appeal as such.

7. In view of the above, the petitioner states that since he is left with no grievance in the present matter, he does not press the present petition any further.

8. The petition is, accordingly, disposed of as not pressed.

9. Copy of this order be given dasti under the signatures of the Court Master.
