1. Present petition has been preferred by the petitioner thereby seeking quashing of FIR No. 0367/2017 registered under Sections 354/323/341/506/509 IPC at P.S. Malviya Nagar, Delhi on the ground that the parties have amicably settled their disputes.
2. As per the allegations levelled in the FIR, the petitioner misbehaved with respondent No.2 and touched her inappropriately and also caused injuries to her by a sharp object.
3. Learned APP for the State, on instructions, submits that the petitioner is the only accused person and respondent No.2 is the complainant/victim in the present case. He, on instructions, further submits that charge-sheet has been filed in the present petition.
4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner and respondent No. 2 are related to each other and present FIR was registered due to some misunderstanding and with the intervention of family members and friends, parties have amicably settled their disputes out of Court. In terms of the said settlement, complainant is now left with no claim or grievance against the petitioner.

5. The petitioners and respondent No.2, who are present in Court, have been identified by their respective counsel as well as the I.O./SI Parvesh Kumar, P.S. Malviya Nagar, Delhi. Petitioner has shown remorse for his conduct and undertakes not to repeat the same in future.

6. Respondent No. 2 states that she has entered into the settlement with the petitioner out of her own free will, volition and without any coercion. She further states that she has no objection if the present FIR and consequent proceedings are quashed.

7. The parties shall remain bound by the statements made in Court today.

8. In view of the above facts and considering that no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, it is directed that the aforesaid FIR and the consequent proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed,

9. With the above directions, the petition is disposed of alongwith pending application.
