CM APPL. 27638/2025 (Direction)

1. This application has been moved with the prayer to dismiss the writ petition as having been declared infructuous in view of the action already taken by the MCD.
2. Mr. Chaturvedi, learned counsel representing the MCD on the other hand states that though some action has been taken, however the petition itself has not been rendered infructuous and has stated that in terms of the last status report filed before the Court by the MCD further action may be required to be taken.

3. The prayer thus made in this application is rejected.
