1. The Court appreciates the endeavours made by the respondents to facilitate the petitioner to write the CAT examination. The petitioner also expresses satisfaction with the steps taken by the respondents.
2. In view of the aforesaid, nothing remains to be adjudicated in the instant case.
3. At this stage, Ms. Nundy, learned senior counsel seeks liberty to withdraw the instant writ petition; however, she prays that in a larger public interest, she be granted the liberty to file a public interest litigation for setting out guidelines to address the rights of persons with disability appearing in various competitive examinations.

4. Be that as it may, since the cause in the instant petition already stands redressed, therefore, the petition stands disposed of. No liberty is necessary to file PIL.

5. All rights and contentions are left open.
