1. The present petition is filed by the petitioners essentially seeking protection of their life and personal liberty.
2. It is averred that the petitioners have gotten married against the will of the parents of Petitioner No. 1.
3. The petitioners claim that they have been receiving repeated phone calls from the parents of Petitioner No. 1, who have been pressuring her to leave the company of Petitioner No. 2.
4. It is, however, not alleged that any physical harm is caused by the parents of Petitioner No. 1.
5. The learned Additional Standing Counsel ('ASC') for the State states that no complaint has ever been received from the petitioners in regard to any threat to their life and liberty. He fairly submits that as and when any such complaint is received, prompt action will be taken by the State Authorities in accordance with law.

6. He further submits that the phone number of the Beat Officer would be provided to the petitioners and they would be at liberty to call the Beat Officer in case they feel any threat to their life and liberty.

7. In view of the submission made by the learned ASC, this Court does not consider it apposite to pass any directions at this stage.

8. The petitioners are at liberty to approach the police authorities in case they feel any threat to their life and liberty.

9. Needless to say, the petitioners are at liberty to approach this Court in case any grievance remains.
