ORDER

% 29.10.2024

1. After some arguments, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner seeks to withdraw the present writ petition. The learned counsel submits that a representation is pending and it be clarified that withdrawal of this petition would not preclude the authorities in considering the same.
2. Accordingly, the petition is dismissed as withdrawn. Pending applications also stand disposed of.
3. It is clarified that this order will not preclude the authorities from considering the petitioner's representation based on merits.
