10. Facts to the extent relevant are that Petitioner was appointed as Lecturer (Political Science) in Bhagini Nivedita College (hereinafter referred to as the ‘College’) on 14.02.2000 in the pay scale of Rs.8000-13500. The College is a constituent College of the University of Delhi.

11. University Grants Commission (‘UGC’) issued a Merit Promotion Scheme, 1998/Career Advancement Scheme, 2000 (CAS), providing for various stages of promotion and the same was adopted by the University. UGC altered the designation of Teachers appointed in Colleges and Universities w.e.f. 01.01.2006 from Lecturer, Reader and Professor to Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor. Several representations made by the Petitioner yielded no results, compelling the Petitioner to approach this Court to release a sum of Rs.90,74,000/- on account of arrears of pay revision.

13. Issue notice.

14. Learned counsels, as above, accept notice on behalf of the respective Respondents.

15. Learned counsel for the Petitioners submits that Petitioners have been prejudiced on two counts. Firstly, they were granted their due promotions belatedly and secondly, while promotions were made effective from the due dates of eligibility, the fruits of the promotions have not been made available inasmuch as the difference in pay and allowances payable in the promoted posts have not been given to the Petitioners in the form of arrears. It is urged by the learned counsel that it is a statutory and a legal obligation of the Respondents to ensure that Petitioners get their legitimate dues on time particularly when the promotions were granted after inordinate and unexplained delay. It is vehemently submitted that Petitioners have earned their promotions by dint of hard work and are legitimately entitled to the arrears arising out of pay fixation and it is not open to the Respondents to disburse the arrears at their whims and fancies as this money is not their bounty.

16. Insofar as the College is concerned, learned counsel expresses helplessness to release the arrears due to lack of funds and remaining Respondents raise the usual plea of budgetary allocations and planned estimates.

17. Having heard learned counsels for the parties, I am of the view that Petitioners are entitled to release of their arrears of which they have been illegally deprived. Petitioners are right in their grievance that to begin with their promotions were delayed for many years despite being eligible with no justification and even after granting promotions and orders of pay fixation being passed and payments being approved, they have yet to receive the fruits of their promotions earned through hard work over the years. The aspiration for promotion has only remained a paper in the absence of monetary benefits flowing from pay fixation in the higher posts.

18. Accordingly, these writ petitions are allowed directing the Respondents to ensure that arrears of pay due to the Petitioners on account of their promotions are released to them as expeditiously as possible and not later than a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of this order by the College. It would be for the Respondents to put their house in order and make arrangements in the budgetary allocations/planned estimates so that the order passed by this Court is complied with in letter and spirit without any delay. The issue of payment of interest on delayed payments of arrears of pay is left open.

19. Writ petitions are disposed of in the aforesaid terms.
