no.3-Rahul Kumar, petitioner no.6-Pankaj Kumar, petitioner no.7-Sombir are concerned, they have been found suitable and their names have, accordingly, been recommended for further approval and the competent authority has also accorded its approval qua them and very shortly, preferably within ten days from today, such decision shall be conveyed to them.

4. As far as petitioner no.4 –Ravi Prakash is concerned, SSC has considered his candidature and has taken a decision as well, which is pending approval before the concerned competent authority. It is undertaken that decision in this regard shall be communicated to petitioner no.4-Ravi Prakash within one week from today.

5. It is also stated by learned counsel for respondent that in relation to petitioner no.5-Vinit Singh, the 19th Standing Screening Committee wanted certain additional documents and in terms thereof, the documents have already been received on 14.11.2024 and since same additional time would be taken for convening next Standing Screening Committee, it is stated that in any case, the decision in respect of petitioner no.5 Shri Vinit Singh shall be taken within six weeks from 14.11.2024.

6. In view of the above said statement made by learned counsel for respondent-Union of India, learned counsel for petitioners submits that he does not press the present contempt petition, at the moment. He states that if, eventually, petitioner nos.4 and 5 are not found suitable, he would reserve his right to take further substantive action as permissible under law. He also states that in case the communication is not conveyed to the petitioners, as undertaken above, he be given permission to revive the present contempt petition.

7. The petition is accordingly disposed of as not pressed. Liberty as prayed for is granted.
