1. Learned counsel for respondents appears on advance notice and states that the active steps are already underway and a meeting had also taken place on 06.12.2024. He has also placed on record the minutes of such meeting. The same is taken on record. Copy thereof has also been supplied to learned counsel for the petitioner.

3. After hearing arguments for some time, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he does not press the present petition at the moment but if no further action is taken by the respondent within further reasonable time, he may be permitted to file the petition afresh.
