that there is no decision as yet.

4. Mr. Rishi Manchanda, learned counsel for petitioner, in all fairness, admits that there is no timeframe within which the respondents are required to dispose of such representation.

5. Learned counsel for respondent appears on advance notice and submits that matter is under process and the representation shall be decided within four weeks from today. He submits that aforesaid statement is based on instructions.

6. Such statement is taken on record.

7. In view of the above, learned counsel for petitioner submits that at the moment, petitioner does not press his present petition.

8. Present petition is accordingly disposed of as not pressed.
