2. Issue notice. Mr. Digam Singh Dagar, the learned APP appearing on behalf of the State accepts notice. He submits that since the FIR is an outcome of a matrimonial dispute and the parties have arrived at a settlement, the State has no objection in case the FIR in question is quashed.
3. The petitioner no.1 (wife), as well as, respondent no. 2 (husband) are present in the Court and they have been identified by the Investigating

Officer, i.e., S.I. Gajender, P.S. Aman Vihar, Delhi.

4. The brief facts of the case are that the marriage between the petitioner and respondent no. 2 was solemnized on 27.07.2015 according to Hindu Rites and Customs.

5. On account of certain misunderstanding between the parties the petitioner lodged the aforesaid FIR.

6. During the pendency of the proceedings, the parties arrived at an oral settlement.

7. In terms of the said settlement, the parties amicably resolved all their disputes and started living together peacefully.

8. It has been agreed between the parties that they shall cooperate with each other in all possible manner and they shall fulfil all their duties and responsibilities towards each other and their family members.
