1. The learned counsel for the respondents submits that the case of the petitioner would be covered by the judgment dated 08.07.2024 passed by the Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No.3303/2015 titled Union of India v. Pankaj Kumar Srivastava & Anr.
2. Based on the above statement, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that nothing further survives in the present petition. Accordingly, the petition is disposed of.
3. At this stage, we may note that the learned counsel for the respondents has submitted that the respondents have moved an application before the Supreme Court seeking extension of time to implement the judgment. The judgment, as far as the petitioner is concerned, may also be implemented within the extended time, if granted by the Supreme Court.

4. In case the judgment is not implemented, the petitioner would be at liberty to take appropriate recourse in accordance with law.
