which penal market rent was imposed on him for overstaying from 01.08.2015 to 31.10.2016 in the quarter allotted to him in Dwarka, Delhi.”

“2. It is the case of the petitioner that while working as an Assistant Commandant, he remained posted in Jammu & Kashmir, NES, Left Wing Extremist (LWE) affected areas w.e.f. 01.09.2007 to 20.10.2011. Consequently, while serving with the 125th Battalion, CRPF, J&K, he was on 29.03.2010 allotted a government accommodation, being quarter no. 225, Special Type-I, Jyoti Kunj, CRPF Residential Complex, Sector-16B, Dwarka, New Delhi for a period of three years. Accordingly, upon applications being moved by the petitioner before the Estate Officer cum- Deputy Inspector General, CRPF, New Delhi, the period of allotment was extended from time to time. However, despite there being no extension w.e.f. 01.08.2015 and being served with the eviction notice dated 10.08.2015, the petitioner continued to occupy the quarter and sought voluntary retirement from service on 31.10.2016.”

*“8. For the aforesaid reasons, we quash the impugned orders to the aforesaid extent that directed the respondents to refund the amount of market penal rent levied on the petitioner for the period between 16.02.2016 to 31.10.2016. The respondents, accordingly, will within six weeks refund to the petitioner the amount in terms of this order.
