3. During the proceedings before the Supreme Court, the parties herein have amicably resolved their disputes. The Supreme Court had noted the same in its order dated 09th September, 2024. It is submitted that the defendant has already agreed to change their name to 'Superb Trip Private Limited' by dropping the word 'my' from its name, as well as from its billboards, logo and trade mark/name.

4. It is submitted that vide order dated 09th September, 2024, the Supreme Court had directed the defendant herein to take necessary steps to comply with the compromise within three months of passing of the order.

5. Learned counsel for the defendant submits that the defendant has already taken the necessary steps to comply with the order passed by the Supreme Court and in furtherance of the same, the word 'my' has been removed from the defendant's company name, as well as from its billboards, logo and trade mark/name.

6. Noting the aforesaid, the present suit is decreed in favour of the plaintiff and against the defendant in terms of Prayer 60 (a) to (c).

7. Decree sheet be drawn up.

8. The present suit, along with pending applications, is accordingly disposed of.
