1. Heard.

2. The petitioner's counsel was informed about the case being listed today through e-mail and a copy of mail has been presented before us by Shri Akshay Bajpai, learned counsel for the respondent, which is taken on record.

3. On 18.10.2024, we had passed the following order:-

> "Sri Akshay Bajpai, learned counsel for the contesting opposite parties says that the petition has become infructuous as the sale notice has been withdrawn by the Bank on 13.02.2024. The said decision is on the records of I.A. No.11/2024 which was filed on 05.04.2024 but till date no response to the same has been filed by the petitioners. Petitioners' counsel, on the other hand, is said to be ill.
> We have already perused the order dated 24.12.2021 restraining the opposite parties from finalizing the sale till the next date of listing which is still continuing.
> As learned counsel for the petitioner is ill, list this case on 22.10.2024. The respondent's counsel shall communicate our order to him on whatsapp or by such other means as may be permissible."

4. It is informed by Shri Akshay Bajpai, learned counsel for the respondent, who has filed I.A. No.11/2024 that the impugned sale notice 02.12.2021 pertaining to House No.H-4/2, Amra Pali Yojana, Hardoi Road, Lucknow has been withdrawn, therefore, nothing survives for adjudication.

5. In view of the aforesaid,, the petition is disposed of in terms of the statement made by Shri Akshay Bajpai, learned counsel for the respondent, which has also been stated on affidavit in I.A. No.11/2024.
