Hon'ble Mohd. Faiz Alam Khan,J.

Nobody is present when this bail appeal is taken up for hearing.

On the last date i.e. 06.08.2024 also, the appellant was not represented and in this regard, following order was passed:-

"1. None is present for the bail appellant(s) when the case is taken up for hearing while learned A.G.A. is available and no request for adjournment has either been made learned counsel for the appellant(s).

2. In the interest of justice, no adverse order is being passed against the appellant(s) in order to provide him/them an opportunity to participate in the proceedings.

3. List this case on 02.09.2024.

4. It is provided that if learned counsel for the bail appellant(s) will choose to remain absent on the next date of listing also, the instant bail appeal may be dismissed for want of prosecution."

Today also neither learned counsel for the appellant is present nor any request for adjournment has been made.

Case is pertaining to the year 2022.

The possibility that the case before the trial court has been concluded may not be ruled out. Instant is the bail appeal. Thus, for the reason aforesaid, the instant bail appeal is dismissed for want of prosecution.

If the appellant feels aggrieved by this order, he may move an application for recall.
