ORAL ORDER

2 15-02-2025 Heard the learned Advocate for the petitioners and the learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Neemchak Bathani P.S. Case No. 252 of 2022, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 323, 341, 504, 506, 324, 308 read with Section 34 of the India Penal Code.

3. It is alleged that on the fateful day while all the accused persons were indulged in abusing the parents of the informant and when it was protested, all the F.I.R. named accused persons including the petitioners assaulted him by means of spade due to which he sustained head injury. There is further allegation of snatching of valuables against the petitioners and others.

4. Learned Advocate for the petitioners has contended that the injury which has been sustained over the head of the informant is simple in nature. In support of the aforesaid contention the injury report of the informant has been placed on record as Annexure-2. It is further contended that both the parties are co-villagers and on account of some trifle they entered into a scuffle, due to which some injury has occurred. The petitioners have fair antecedent and they undertake before this Court that they will fully co-operate in the proceeding of the Court.

5. On the other hand, learned counsel for the State has vehemently opposed the pre-arrest bail application.

6. Regard being had to the submissions made on behalf of the parties and considering the omnibus nature of allegations coupled with the simple injury and the fair antecedent, let the petitioners, above named be released on bail, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned C.J.M., Gaya, in connection with Neemchak Bathani P.S. Case No. 252 of 2022,
