CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE A. ABHISHEK REDDY
ORAL ORDER

2 19-03-2025 Heard the learned counsels for the parties.

2. This writ petition has been filed for seeking the following relief(s)

“(a) For grant of an appropriate writ for quashing the order dated 22.10.2024 passed by the Commissioner Patna Division in B.T.P.D.S Control Revision No. 301/2023 rejecting the Revision petition filed by the petitioner (Annexures-P/5)

(b) For grant of an appropriate writ for quashing of the order dated 07.08.2023 passed by the learned additional Collector cum Additional District Magistrate, Nalanda in Supply Appeal No. 11/2023, rejecting the Appeal filed by the petitioner (Annexure-P/4).

(c) For grant of an appropriate writ for quashing the order dated 25.02.2023 passed by the learned Sub-Divisional Officer Hilsa (Nalanda) contained in Memo No. 132/Aa cancelling the Fare Price Shop Licence No. H-35/07 of the petitioner at Gram Pamnchayat Puna, Prakhhand Hilsa, District Nalanda under Bihar Targetted Public Distribution System (Control) order 2016 and Essential Commodities Act 1955 (Annexur-P/3).

(d) For grant of an appropriate writ to restore the Licence No. H.35/07 of the petitioner at GramPanchayat Pune, Prakhhand Hilsa, District Nalanda under Public Distribution System.”

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has stated that in the Show Cause Notice issued by the Sub-Divisional Officer there is no proposal for cancellation of the license. Learned counsel has stated that non-mentioning of the proposal for cancelling his license is contrary to the provisions of order 27(ii) of the Bihar Targeted Public Distribution System (Control) Order, 2016 (hereinafter referred to as ‘the Order, 2016’).

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has relied on the judgment of the full Bench passed in CWJC No.21202 of 2021 and analogous cases dated 26.09.2023 to buttress his contention that non-mentioning of the proposed action in the show-cause notice is bad in law and contrary to Rule 27(ii) of the Control Order, 2016.

5. Learned counsel has stated that in view of the above mentioned provisions of law and judgment relied by the petitioner, the impugned order may be set aside and matter remanded back to the authorities concerned for issuing a fresh show-cause notice in terms of order 27(ii) of the Control Order, 2016 and thereafter take necessary action.

6. Per contra, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents has vehemently opposed the very maintainability of the writ petition and stated that the present writ petition is not maintainable as the petitioner has exhausted all the remedies and all the authorities have found that the petitioner has violated the provisions of the Control Order, 2016. Learned counsel has therefore prayed this Hon'ble Court to dismiss the present writ petition.

7. This Hon'ble Court in CWJC No.21202 of 2021 and analogous cases has held as under:

“19. Accordingly, we answer the reference as under:-

It is mandatory for a licensing authority issuing a notice under order 27(ii) to a license to mention that there is a proposal for cancellation of his license, failing which such notice cannot be treated to be a valid notice of giving sufficient opportunity to the licensee to state his case under order 27(ii) of the BTPDS Control Order. ”

8. A perusal of the show-cause notice issued to the petitioner does not reveal that there is any proposal of the action sought to be taken against the petitioner. Therefore, the same has to be held as bad, illegal, contrary to the provisions of Rule 27(ii) of the Control Order and has to be necessarily set aside.

9. Having regard to the above facts and circumstances and the law laid down by this Hon'ble Court, the present CWJC is allowed. The impugned order passed by the Revisional Authority dated 22.10.2024, the order passed by the Appellate Authority dated 07.08.2023 as well as the order passed by the Sub-Divisional Officer, Hilsa (Nalanda) dated 25.02.2023 are set aside. The matter is remanded back to the Sub-divisional Officer for issuing a fresh show-cause notice to the petitioner strictly in compliance with the provisions of Rule 27(ii) of the Control Order, 2016 and call for his explanation by giving him reasonable time.

10. On such show-cause notice being served, the petitioner shall file his explanation within the stipulated time. On receipt of the explanation submitted by the petitioner the authority concerned shall pass a reasoned order strictly in accordance with law duly taking into consideration the explanation submitted by the petitioner.

11. It is needless to mention that before passing any orders, the petitioner shall be given an opportunity of hearing. The entire exercise shall be completed as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Any order passed shall be communicated to the petitioner.

12. With the above directions, this Writ Petition is allowed to the extent indicated above.
