3. As per the prosecution case, the petitioner used to establish physical relationship with the informant on the pretext of marriage for five years. Thereafter, the informant became pregnant. It is further alleged that when the informant used to talk about marriage then the petitioner abused and assaulted her.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. The charge-sheet has already been submitted against the petitioner. Learned counsel has further submitted that the victim girl and the petitioner chose to have physical relationship of their own will and she has never objected about the same to anyone nor any complaint was made before the police. The petitioner has no concern with the alleged offence. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent as stated in para 3 of the bail petition. The petitioner is in custody in this case since 12.11.2024.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has opposed the bail petition of the petitioner and submitted that the victim is a minor girl. The statement of the victim recorded under Section 183 of B.N.S.S. has stated that the petitioner trapped her in love on the pretext of marriage, when she became pregnant for six months then he refused for marriage and abused her. As per para-3, 53, 54 and 55, the witnesses have supported the case of the prosecution.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case as well as the specific and heinous nature of offence against the petitioner, this court is not inclined to grant bail to
