CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE BIBEK CHAUDHURI
ORAL ORDER

2 24-04-2025 This is an appeal under Section 101(5) of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015, filed by the father and natural guardian of the CICL, praying for bail.

2. It is not in dispute that the appellant while crossing the international border of India and Nepal was apprehended by members of SSB. On search, a packet measuring about 20 grams of Brown Sugar, was recovered from the physical possession of the appellant. It is ascertained from the case diary that one Vinod Chaupal being a drug peddler and kingpin of the incident who handed over the said packet to the appellant who deliver it to a person in Nepal. Thus, the appellant from his childhood has been working as a carrier of drug to earn easy money.

3. Considering the adverse effect of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances where little children are used, taking advantage of their poverty, act as carrier of narcotic drugs. This Court is of the view that for the sake of the benefit and development of the appellant as well as the society at large, he should be kept under the protective umbrella of the protection home.

4. For the reasons aforesaid, the prayer for bail is rejected. The appeal is accordingly, dismissed.
