2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Riga P.S. Case No. 341 of 2024, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 109, 352, 351(2) and 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita.

Further, the petitioner inflicted knife blows on the stomach of the informant's brother.

that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated. There is allegation of inflicting repeated knife blows on the stomach of the informant's brother but the injured has suffered lacerated wound in his chest.

5. On the other hand, learned counsel for the informant and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, Mr. Shailendra Kumar for the State opposes the prayer for bail of the petitioner by submitting that the petitioner has inflicted knife blows on the person of the informant's brother who has suffered the grievous injuries as per Medical Report.

6. Considering the above-mentioned facts and circumstances, it is not a fit case for anticipatory bail, which is accordingly rejected.
