ORAL ORDER

2 23-04-2025 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Section 392 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and the informant alleges that three unknown accused persons intercepted and on point of pistol, two of the accused snatched Rs. 6 lakhs from him while one of the accused was sitting on the motorcycle.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that FIR was instituted against unknown, it is also submitted that during the course of investigation, Vivek and Kunwar were arrested against whom charge sheet has been submitted and in their confessional statement, the name of the petitioner transpired, as such, it is submitted that confession made before the police does not have any admissibility as evidence.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner and submits that it is a case of road robbery and if the privilege of anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioner, he may abscond, on which the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that petitioner will not abscond rather will co-operate in the investigation to prove his innocence.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned trial court within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Nautan P.S. Case No. 181 of 2023 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Cr.P.C.

7. One of the bailors of the petitioner shall be his father, Nandlal Ram.

8. However, it is made clear that in the event if the Investigating Officer of the case files an application before the learned Trial Court bringing to its notice that petitioner despite giving assurance to this Court is not co-operating in the investigation, in that event the learned Trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner.

9. Let a copy of this order be sent to the Superintendent of Police, Siwan for its onward communication to Nautan P.S. for perusal of the SHO and the Investigating Officer.
