2 23-04-2025 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners, at the outset, seeks permission to withdraw the anticipatory bail application with respect to Petitioner No. 1, i.e., Ashutosh Kumar, who was apprehended during pendency of the instant anticipatory bail application.

3. Permission is accorded.

4. Accordingly, the instant anticipatory bail application is dismissed as withdrawn with respect to petitioner No. 1.

5. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 149, 341, 323, 427, 307, 332, 353, 431 and 504 of the IPC and Section 8B of National Highway Act.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are persons with clean antecedent and in sum and substance, the allegation is that petitioners were protesting against the appointment being made under the scheme of Agniveer, which led to road block at NH-28, accordingly the police personnel reached, when it is alleged that the accused persons including the petitioners created ruckus and even assaulted the police team and thus obstructed the police in discharging their duties.

Learned counsel for the petitioners next submits that from perusal of the allegation, it would manifest that the informant alleges that 100-150 accused were present at the place of occurrence, as such the allegation of assault is general and omnibus in nature. It is also submitted that petitioners are students and were protesting; and as far as allegation of assaulting the police personnel is concerned, the same is exaggerated.
