Sections 304(B), 201, 34 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code.

was tortured by the accused persons including the petitioner for demand of dowry and on non-fulfillment of the same they assaulted her and threatened the that they will kill her.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has clean antecedent and he has falsely been implicated in this case merely on the ground that he is husband of the deceased. He further submits that the allegation as alleged in the F.I.R. is false and fabricated and the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged in the F.I.R. and in fact, the deceased died due to an accident and she has been examined before the Dr. Subhas Kumar Pandey, who has treated the deceased.

Learned A.P.P. for the State on the basis of the material available on the record in the case diary has vehemently opposed the prayer for bail of the petitioner and submits that the petitioner has disposed of the dead body of the deceased and apart from that the number of witnesses have supported the case of the prosecution.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail in connection with Majhualiya P.S. Case No. 854 of 2023 pending in the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, West Champaran at Bettiah.
