ORAL ORDER

2 23-04-2025

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. The petitioners have preferred this application for grant of regular bail in connection with Excise P.S. Nawada

Case no.93 of 2025 registered under sections 8 and 20(b)(ii)(a) of the N.D.P.S. Act.

3. As per the prosecution case, on a search being conducted, 984 grams of ganja like substance was recovered from the vehicle in question and the three petitioners herein who were in the vehicle were taken into custody.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the three petitioners submits that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in the case. No incriminating article has been recovered from either their possession or from the vehicle in question. None of the petitioners have any criminal antecedent. It is further submitted that accepting the allegations levelled in the FIR for the sake of argument, the alleged recovery of ganja is less than small quantity.

5. The application for bail is opposed by learned A.P.P. for the State.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the allegations against the petitioners in the FIR, the alleged quantity of ganja being less than small quantity, the petitioners having remained in custody since 13.2.2025 and not having any criminal antecedent, the Court directs all the three petitioners to be enlarged on bail in connection with Excise P.S. Nawada Case no.93 of 2025 on each of them furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/ (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Nawada on the following condition:

(i) The petitioners shall cooperate in the investigation/trial and make themselves available as and when required either by the Investigating Officer or by the learned Court below.
