Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Mr.Manohar Prasad Singh, Adv.
For the Opposite Party/s : Mr.Jai Narain Thakur, APP

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY
ORAL ORDER

2 23-04-2025 Heard the parties.

2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Halsi P.S. Case No. 03 of 2025 for the offence under sections 126(2), 115(2), 329(3), 109, 303(2), 3(5) of BNS lodged on 03.01.2025 by the informant, Vipin Yadav.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that while they were sitting on the doors, the accused persons came armed variously and the allegation against this petitioner is of using iron rod to assault the informant on his head causing injury and when Rajiv Kumar came to his rescue, he was also assaulted by one Niraj Yadav. There is allegation of taking away of gold chain. As the villagers assembled, the accused persons escaped. The injured persons were, later, taken to the hospital. Accordingly, the FIR.

4. Though learned counsel for the petitioner tried to impress upon this Court about the innocence of the petitioner, learned APP has drawn the attention of this Court the order of learned Sessions Judge to show that the allegation that has come in the FIR supported by the injuries inasmuch as the informant suffered injury on his head which has been attributed to this petitioner.

5. In that background, it would be appropriate that the petitioner seeks bail. The anticipatory bail of the petitioner stands rejected.

6. However, if the petitioner surrenders within four weeks and seeks bail, the learned Trial Court is expected to take up the application for bail on the same day.
