4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. Counsel further submits that the injury report of the informant's son has been annexed as Annexure P/2, which makes it clear that the wound is lacerated in nature and caused by a hard and blunt substance. Counsel further submits that the injury report does not support the allegations. Counsel also submits that Annexure

P/3 is the counter case for the same date and place of occurrence, and upon a bare reading of the FIR, it transpires that a land dispute is ongoing between the parties, and both the petitioner's side and the informant's side are adjacent neighbors Counsel also submits that the criminal antecedents of the petitioner are clean.
