ORAL ORDER

2 28-04-2025 Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and learned A.P.P. appearing on behalf of the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends her arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 126(2), 127(2), 117(2), 109, 74, 303(2), 352, 351(2), 351(3) and 3(5) of the B.N.S..

3. As per prosecution case, informant, namely Kajal Kumari, alleged that her husband forcibly took her to Sasural and started assaulting her and when her Maika people came to pacify the matter, all the accused persons, including this petitioner, assaulted mother, father and brother of informant causing several severe injuries. It is further alleged that they also snatched Mangalsutra from her mother and gold chain from her brother.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner that petitioner is quite innocent and has committed no offence. As a matter of fact, petitioner is sister-in-law (Gotni) of the informant and specific accusation of assault is against co-accused Suraj Chaudhary, who happens to be husband of the informant. Petitioner is a victim of over implication and has falsely been implicated in this case merely because she happens to be in-law of the informant. Petitioner is a lady and claims clean antecedents.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the general and omnibus nature of accusation and clean antecedents of the petitioner, the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner is allowed.

7. Accordingly, in the event of arrest/surrender within a period of eight weeks from today, let the above named petitioner be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned C.J.M., Nawada in connection with Bundelkhand P.S. Case No. 86 of 2024, subject to condition as laid down under Section 482(2) of the B.N.S.S..
